January 18th - 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM

The World Trade Orchestra brings together four of the most inspired, inventive jazz musicians on the East Coast to play some of the world's most inspiring, transporting songs. The band features Rob Curto on accordion, Jay Rattman on clarinet, Dan Monaghan on drums, and Dan Martin on bass. Each member has a long list of credits — Grammy nominations and film soundtracks, high-profile collaborations and performances at Coachella. They formed the World Trade Orchestra to give new life to music that has shaped them profoundly: Brazilian, Cuban, American and French music from the 1920s and 1930s. The World Trade Orchestra is more than a jazz band — it's an emotional weather system. It's a party on Gatsby's lawn. It's a nightclub in Rio. It's the early hours of the morning in Old Havana. It's a cobblestone street in Paris at dusk. It's a mood, an atmosphere, an experience

Wild Kingdom:

100 Years of Animal Art

Hunt Slonem:

Eden Never Ends

NOW THROUGH MARCH 3rd

For the sheer fun of it, nothing beats the theme of animals in art. This rip-roaring show assembles a circus parade of the wild and the woolly, from the big cats (lions, tigers, leopards and others) to the sheep and bunnies beloved by all (including the cats). The roll call of major talents represented in the show whose paintings, drawings, and sculpture have immortalized the wild kingdom includes many of the top dogs in art history, including Pablo Picasso, Marc Chagall, John James Audubon and Jeff Koons among many others (there are over a hundred works on view). As a special treat, a lavishly colorful installation by the world-renowned artist and designer Hunt Slonem will transform the elegant rooms of the mansion into a dream-like sanctuary for parrots, rabbits and butterflies, his signature motifs. This show within a show, titled Eden Never Ends, includes not just a dazzling array of paintings but an unforgettable installation of fabrics and extravagant furniture designed by Hunt Slonem, created expressly for this show.
