March 20th - 7:00 PM - 8:45 PM
Friends Art Lecture Series Art lecturer Ines Powell will present a program on Charles I: King and Collector. The Royal Academy of Arts in London is celebrating the legendary collection of Charles I with a landmark exhibition of over 100 works of art.
The exhibition includes monumental paintings, tapestries, sculpture and miniatures. King Charles I amassed an extraordinary art collection, with works by some of the finest artists of the past - Titian, Mantegna, Durer, and commissioned contemporary leading artists such as Van Dyck and Rubens.
Following the execution of King Charles I in 1649, his collection was scattered across Europe. This landmark exhibition will bring together again many of the treasures from the King's illustrious collection.
The Friends of the Library sponsor this free event. All welcome!
LOCATION: MNA Community Room
There are many spaces available.
