Please join us for the 3rd Annual Black History Month Scholarship Celebration hosted by Roderick Watson, on Saturday, February 9th from 6 PM-11 PM, at the Knights of Columbus, 81 Sea Cliff Ave, Glen Cove.

This year we will honor and celebrate the men and women of color who have served in our U.S Armed services. We celebrate the legacy, lives and experiences of black veterans. The event is being sponsored by Glen Cove United, Inc. Among this year's entertainment the event will feature performances from the Glen Cove Dance Studio, and a special poetic tribute by Victoria Crosby, Glen Cove's poet laureate, and as always, delicious soul food. Come support our Glen Cove African American youth.

The ticket price is $60 and $550 for a table of 10. For Tickets or further information contact

Wild Kingdom:

100 Years of Animal Art

Hunt Slonem:

Eden Never Ends

NOW THROUGH MARCH 3rd

For the sheer fun of it, nothing beats the theme of animals in art. This rip-roaring show assembles a circus parade of the wild and the woolly, from the big cats (lions, tigers, leopards and others) to the sheep and bunnies beloved by all (including the cats). The roll call of major talents represented in the show whose paintings, drawings, and sculpture have immortalized the wild kingdom includes many of the top dogs in art history, including Pablo Picasso, Marc Chagall, John James Audubon and Jeff Koons among many others (there are over a hundred works on view). As a special treat, a lavishly colorful installation by the world-renowned artist and designer Hunt Slonem will transform the elegant rooms of the mansion into a dream-like sanctuary for parrots, rabbits and butterflies, his signature motifs. This show within a show, titled Eden Never Ends, includes not just a dazzling array of paintings but an unforgettable installation of fabrics and extravagant furniture designed by Hunt Slonem, created expressly for this show.
