COYOTES IN NASSAU COUNTY

Presented by Frank Vincenti of the Wild Dog Foundation

The Wild Dog Foundation will hold a detailed information session on coyotes and their presence and potential in Nassau County and Long Island. For over 20 years the Wild Dog Foundation has educated residents of the tri-state area on coyotes in an effort to inform, prevent conflicts and address concerns the public may have regarding the animals presence in the area. Come and learn how coyotes interact with pets, the public and other wildlife. All questions are welcome.

Wild Kingdom:
100 Years of Animal Art
Hunt Slonem:
Eden Never Ends
NOW THROUGH MARCH 3rd
For the sheer fun of it, nothing beats the theme of animals in art. This rip-roaring show assembles a circus parade of the wild and the woolly, from the big cats (lions, tigers, leopards and others) to the sheep and bunnies beloved by all (including the cats). The roll call of major talents represented in the show whose paintings, drawings, and sculpture have immortalized the wild kingdom includes many of the top dogs in art history, including Pablo Picasso, Marc Chagall, John James Audubon and Jeff Koons among many others (there are over a hundred works on view). As a special treat, a lavishly colorful installation by the world-renowned artist and designer Hunt Slonem will transform the elegant rooms of the mansion into a dream-like sanctuary for parrots, rabbits and butterflies, his signature motifs. This show within a show, titled Eden Never Ends, includes not just a dazzling array of paintings but an unforgettable installation of fabrics and extravagant furniture designed by Hunt Slonem, created expressly for this show.
